JUMP INTO SUMMER!

MINIMAL MAVERICK

Although its sleek lines are urban to the core, RH's Vietri sofa, designed by New York artist Brad Ascalon, looks right at home outdoors. Available in two colorways (shown: Iron), $2,096 for 90" frame (cushions sold separately), 69 Main St., East Hampton, 631-907-1300, rh.com.

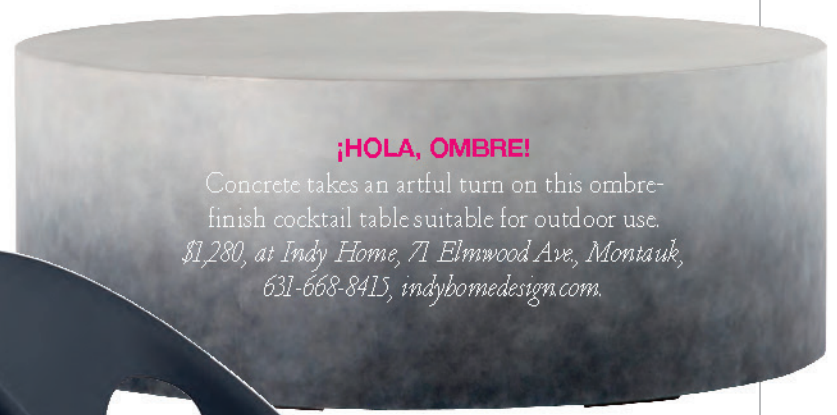

HANG IN THERE

Go with the summer flow on Paola Lenti's Orbitry hanging lounge chair, whose rope shell is available in multiple solid or two-tone color options. $17,565 (as shown), at West | Out East, 25 Newtown Ln., East Hampton, 631-324-3103, westouteast.com.

¡HOLA, OMBRE!

Concrete takes an artful turn on this ombre-finish cocktail table suitable for outdoor use. $1,280, at Indy Home, 71 Elmwood Ave., Montauk, 631-668-8415, indybomedesign.com.

BELL OF THE BALL

Stackable and lightweight, the Bell chair by Magis is a wallet-friendly answer to multi-guest seating challenges. Available in three colorways (shown: Midnight), $125, at Design Within Reach, 5 Main St., Southampton, 929-352-1744, dwr.com.

HEAD TO HEAD

The old-fashioned tête-à-tête gets a 21st-century twist in the form of the More Comfort Daybed, a collaboration between interior designer Clodagh and Walters. $9,125, at Tbayers Outdoor Living, 2434 Main St., Bridgehampton, 631-537-0077, tbayershardware.com.

TASTE SENSATION

This handsome, Baroque-style teak table can handle a crowd, or simply your own very discriminating pod. Available in multiple finishes (shown: natural), $3,950 (96" l.), at Mecox, 257 Cty. Rd. 39A, Southampton, 631-287-5015, mecox.com.
