product Shield
standout This elegant screen/valet holds all kinds of surprises, from its inlaid walnut exterior to its Tanganyika-veneered interior adorned with multiple mirrors. Through DDC. ddcnyc.com

product Spool
standout From the Interior Design Hall of Fame member comes a small table crafted of rigid polyurethane—which creates a big splash when treated to a coat of glossy lacquer (offered in 18 hues). bebitalia.com

product Cats
standout Delicately engraved with whiskey motifs, the stackable black-stained solid-ash form, with natural varnish, is a real creature comfort—whether used as a stool or beside table. ligne-roset.com

product Harlequin Eye
standout Reverse-painted glass becomes a literal trompe l'oeil atop the table's polished brass base, in a contoured shape ideal for pulling up to curved sofas. jonathanadler.com

product Liberty
standout Designed by the Atelier van Lieshout founder, this perfect complement to the same-named lounge boasts graceful angles of solid American walnut that meld Arts & Crafts influences with modern minimalism. moooi.com

product Doppio
standout Its name the Italian word for "double," this two-in-one cocktail table has an easy-to-flip top, each side featuring a different material—in this iteration black-stained and natural-finish oak veneer. civilspace.com

product Nacre
standout The laminated-glass top of this intriguing table by the Interior Design Hall of Famers is finished in extralight mirror that fades toward the edges, thus complementing the oval base with mirrored bottom. Through DDC. ddcny.com

product Hayama
standout The Spanish legend (and Hall of Fame member) interprets the work of Japanese architect Kazuhide Takahama in a lacquered MDF sideboard whose thin profile secretes doors that open to reveal transparent glass shelves. cassina.com
