

INTERIOR DESIGN[®]

MAY 31
2021

*the shape
of things*
spring market
tabloid

John Pomp
of John Pomp Studios

product Radiant standout Based in Philadelphia, the glassblower dreams up an other-worldly LED lighting series that nods to celestial bodies via rippled and layered hand-cast glass with iridescence. johnpomp.com

Matt Berman and Andrew Kotchen
for Arteriors

product Glaze
standout One of 48 products in the Workshop/ADP duo's new contract-grade collection, the floor lamp sports a glazed ceramic shade inspired by Kotchen's ceramicist wife, Emily. arteriorshome.com

Brad Ascalon
for Pablo Designs

product Belmont Table
standout A raceway shade in premium wool felt (or woven fabric) tops the fully dimmable lamp's handcrafted oak or walnut base, which incorporates two USB ports. pablodesigns.com

Roberto and Ludovica Palomba
for Foscarini

product Birdie Easy
standout The Italian duo's minimal, modern take on the classic table lamp, in two sizes, pairs a slightly flared polycarbonate shade with a liquid-coated aluminum stem in six hues. foscarini.com/en

1

cool as a cucumber

Serene takes on outdoor living

1. Link Design Studio in collaboration with Lake + Wells' Crystal mobile LED lantern with dark-bronze machined aluminum body, cast-crystal diffuser, and leather handle by Link Outdoor. linkoutdoor.com
2. Hopscotch glazed porcelain mosaics by Artaic. artaic.com
3. Brad Ascalon's Reyes lounge chair in slate by RH. rh.com
4. Robby Cantarutti & Partners' Forest aluminum rocking chair with iroko sleds by Fast. fastpa.com/en
5. Kaleidoscope solution-dyed polypropylene indoor/outdoor textile in olive by Suzanne Tucker Home. suzannetuckerhome.com
6. Vincent Van Duysen's Otti modular sectional with powder-coated aluminum frame and Perennials solution-dyed acrylic rope base and back by Sutherland Furniture. sutherlandfurniture.com

2

outdoor

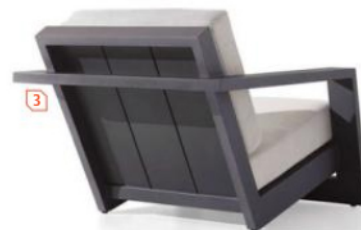

6

5

4

3