

INTERIOR DESIGN

SPRING
2023

big, bold moves!
spring market tabloid

1
2
3
4

Brad Ascalon
for Sutherland Furniture

Sasha Bikoff
for Walters Wicker

Ann Marie Vering
for Brown Jordan

Brook Pordigon
of Brook Pordigon Textiles

product Radia
standout The New York designer's collection of stone-topped teak nesting tables, their legs taking the form of ship rudders, was inspired by brand founder David Sutherland's nautical passions. sutherlandfurniture.com

product Lifesaver
standout Bikoff's fearless interiors, awash in riotous color, translate well to a mod armchair, its distinctive platform bases featuring rounded corners and neat rows of circular perforations. walterswicker.com

product Oliver
standout Inspired by the wicker bucket seats of a 1964 Fiat Jolly, the L.A. hospitality designer devised a likened outdoor lounge in handwoven rope, cradled by an angular frame and topped with plush cushions. brownjordan.com

product Outbounds
standout "From the rocky shores of Carmel to the canopied forests of Big Sur, we drew on inspiration close to home," the California designer says of her solution-dyed acrylics, ideal for coastal homes, gardens, and boat interiors. brookpordigontextiles.com